Assumements.

Wathington Thibayan.—Benefit of Susan Desin.—This evening Miss Deain will receive her benefit, which will prove a humper, undoubtedly. There is no actress, who appears in this city, who poss uses such a firm hold upon good epinton of the Washington public as Miss Denia. On Friday and Saturday evenings she makes her last appearance. Tonight she assumes the character of Meden, in the tragelly of the same name, and will be ably supported by the excellent company, including Mr. Wilson as Jason, and Mr. Dunn as Orpheus.

Founda New Tunnyme.—Tonia Street.—This

Form's New Theatre—Trail Street.—This evening, beyond doubt, the brilliant speciacular drams entitled "The Naisd Queen," will be presented at this new place of resort. The portions of stage machinery which interpreted with the performance last evening, have arrived and been placed in position. The entire company engaged in the representation of this play before the footlights, consists of several ascores of first-class performers, whilet the machinist, stage carpetiers, and suxiliaries from smoot a small army. With the "Naisd Queen" this evening, will be spoken an opening address, written by W. Seaton Donoho, Eeq., of this city.
